Building Skills for a Satisfying Career and Excellent Life

ANNMARIE KELLY

Annmarie Kelly is a speaker, podcast host, author of several books focused on women's empowerment, the CEO of SkillBuilder Systems, and founder of The Victorious Woman Project. Her main areas of focus are helping mid-life women create exciting new life chapters and showing single, professional women – and many already-married women – how to escape the “til death do you part” stranglehold of marriage.

For over twenty-five years, Annmarie's had the pleasure of working with many women, helping them get unstuck, reconnect to their life's goals, and shape challenges into new beginnings through both “live” and online seminars, webinars, and workshops.

Annmarie's focus on women's empowerment grew out of her early struggles to become independent, self-sufficient, and in-tune with her own personal power. Growing up in an old-school Italian family, she was a classic “good girl” – right up to the time she figured out there was no real benefit to making everyone else (but herself) happy.

Before she started writing books and speaking professionally, she had a diverse work background. She was an elementary and middle school teacher, real estate agent and office manager, the developer/manager of the corporate university for a large Better Homes and Gardens real estate company, and – through her own business – a corporate trainer focused on management and communication skill building.

Annmarie books include: Victorious Woman! Shaping Life's Challenges into Personal Victories (2005), Victory by Design (2008) and The Five-Year Marriage: Shifting the Marriage Paradigm (2018). She is also the host of the digital show Not Your Mother's Marriage and the Victory Chicks Radio podcast (formerly the Friday Happy Hour on WCHE in West Chester, PA). She pioneered May's International Victorious Woman Month and hosts the annual Victorious Woman Celebration and fundraiser, the Girlfriend Gala. She has been honored with the ATDPHL Leadership Award (twice), International Women's Day Outstanding Service Award, President's Call to Service, awarded by President Barack Obama, Neumann University's Distinguished Alumni Award, and is a Literacy Hero nominee.

Annmarie grew up in the Philadelphia suburbs. She loves being “down the shore” in Avalon, New Jersey or hiking in Downeast Maine. She is an avid Phillies fan and has been since her father first took her to a Phillies game when she was five years old. She's active with many women's communities, including supporting local charities, as well as the Victorious Woman Scholarship at Neumann University (her alma mater). She loves traveling, ballroom dancing, and spending time with her wonderful spouse, Joseph Eagle, and her beautiful good friends.
